On September 7th, 2013 myself, my brother, two nephews and a friend were impeded in our freedom to travel un molested and arrested with no probable cause. Once under arrest, I was pepper sprayed and the squad cars door was shot on my knee - for which I had to undergo massive surgery. It is clear from the available footage that there was no way for the officer to ascertain whether there was any violation of seat belt laws. There was an arrest with no probable cause and gross over use of authority to the point I had to receive corrective surgery on my knee for which I have not recovered.
